

A partnership you can trust

'It's a tough road ahead... but we're with you on the journey'

When times are tough, you need a partner you can trust. A partner that supports your business, and adapts to suit your needs at that moment in time. A partner that allows you a level of flexibility around your services. A partner who is stable and agile enough to adapt to your businesses demand, be that reducing or increasing services. A partner that leaves you in control of your own needs.

How?

FLEXIBILITY & AGILITY

We have listened to our customers and supported them by quickly reducing or changing their services to meet their requirements in the current changing market.

Over 15,000 service lines changed to meet customer responses to Covid-19

Veolia's Customer Hub provides access to key performance metrics

We continue to provide transparent data to support key decisions and enable planning for the future.

STAYING IN CONTROL

Over £1.3Bn invested into UK infrastructure, a further £850m committed

REDUCING THE RISK TO YOU

In using our national vehicle fleet and UK treatment infrastructure we can provide cost certainty and support budgetary planning to assist businesses.

At Veolia, we know that times are tough, but by collaborating and working together, we can get through these turbulent times.

How can we help you with your business needs?

Is your service provider being as flexible as you would like?

Let's start the conversation on how we can deliver solutions and help your business prepare for the challenging times ahead, CLICK HERE and a member of our friendly team will be in touch.